Release of foodgrains by the State Government for PDS

634. SHRI SURESH PACHOURI: Will the Minister of CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have advised the State Governments to release food-grains for PDS wherever necessary to maintain easy availability of foodgrains; and

(a) if so, whether this decision has helped in checking the steep-rise in prices of all essential commodities?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): (a) and (b). Central Government makes bulk allocations of foodgrains for the Public Distribution System to State Govemments/UT Administrations from month to month taking into account the availability of stocks with the Central Government, inter se requirements of States/UTs and seasonal requirements. Internal distribution of foodgrains allocated by Central Government is a matter which falls within the administrative jurisdiction of State Governments and UT Administrations. Central Government has advised State Govemments/UT Administrations to increase the allocations made by them to areas covered under the Ravamped PDS since these areas are chronically food deficit. Release of food grains for the Public Distribution System has a moderating effect on their open market prices.

Rise of wholesale price Index
